

DATASHEET

Cable Tidy Rail, L=900 mm for Depth 1000 mm

General data

The cable support from EFB-Elektronik is designed for lateral mounting on the 19" profile rails and supports orderly installation as well as strain relief by means of cable ties or Velcro tape. As a galvanized steel cable interceptor strip, it is designed for universal application in a professional rack environment and has a narrow design with a width of 18 mm.

- Side mounting on the 19" profile rails for structured cable routing
- Orderly routing and strain relief with cable ties or Velcro tape
- Galvanized steel cable interceptor strip with metallic surface and 18 mm width

The design combines a robust steel material with a galvanized surface. This creates a functional solution for the clean routing of cables on the rack side. The universal design supports use in different cabinet series, while the reduced width enables space-saving integration.
